The alumni and friends listed in this report have helped make this past fiscal year particularly successful for The John Marshall Law School. With the outpouring of financial support, we were able to establish several new student scholarships, fund special programs, and sustain operating support. The law school is indebted to our donors for their belief in this institution.

Gifts shown in this report were received between September 1, 2013 and August 31, 2014.

“During the Depression, my father, Arthur A. Bogeaus (JD ’38), worked as an elevator operator during the daytime and attended The John Marshall Law School at night. It is my hope that my father’s name will live on by helping John Marshall night students during these very financially challenging times.”

Robin Bogeaus Seidenberg lectures about genealogy in the Midwest and Florida and has spoken at international genealogical conferences in Los Angeles, Boston, and Salt Lake City, as well as in Paris, France, and Manchester, England. In 2004, she established the Arthur A. Bogeaus Endowed Student Book Fund in memory of her father.
The John Marshall Law School has an invaluable tradition of allowing students opportunities to serve others; it is impossible to weigh the great benefit of giving to such a worthwhile cause as law student scholarships.

Hon. Everette A. Braden (JD ’69) retired from the bench in 2000, after serving as a Judge of the Circuit Court of Cook County for more than 20 years. He has served on The John Marshall Law School Alumni Association Board of Directors and received the law school’s Distinguished Service Award in 1986; he currently serves on the Board of Visitors.

“I support John Marshall through my personal involvement and financial support because I believe the law school does an excellent job of preparing its students to be practice-ready. I am particularly impressed with the clinical programs that give our students hands-on experience.”

Cathy Gonzales O’Kelly (pictured at far left), Shareholder, Vedder Price, has served on The John Marshall Law School Board of Trustees since 2008. After earning her JD from the University of Virginia, she worked with the Securities and Exchange Commission in Washington, DC.

“John Marshall has provided me with an opportunity to become a leader in the Chicago legal community. Through connections with the law school, I have met outstanding lawyers, students, and judges who involved me in community and public service and provided professional support throughout my legal career. I hope to give similar opportunities to others through my financial support and personal involvement with the law school.”

Paula Hudson Holderman (JD ’79) (pictured above right), Chief Attorney Development Officer, Winston & Strawn, joined The John Marshall Law School Board of Trustees in 2013. She was previously the director of hiring, training, and minority recruitment for the Cook County State’s Attorney’s Office in Chicago, and Associate Director of John Marshall’s Center for Advocacy and Dispute Resolution.

John Marshall gave me an opportunity to have a better chance at life, and I feel an obligation to express my appreciation. I started making donations to the law school right after graduating, and I’ve made a gift every year since then.”

Hon. James J. Heyda (JD ’66) retired as a Judge of the Circuit Court of Cook County in 1997, after 21 years on the bench. Previously he was in private practice and public service as an Assistant State’s Attorney and an Assistant Attorney General.

“I attended John Marshall at night while working full-time. I always believed that the education I received was second to none and gave me the tools and practical skills I needed to be successful in various settings. I am a big believer in paying it forward so that future generations can benefit from the offerings of The John Marshall Law School.”

The 2014–2015 President of the Chicago Bar Association, Dan Cotter (JD ’95) (pictured at far left), is Vice President, General Counsel, and Secretary for Fidelity Life Association. He has served on The John Marshall Law School Alumni Association Board of Directors and Board of Visitors and is an adjunct professor at the law school.

“John Marshall gave me the foundation for unlimited opportunity for which I will always be thankful. A give-back to the school could not be more appreciated by a forward-thinking, open-arm administration. Walking into the new facility you can’t help but think how positively lives are affected more now than ever.”

Howard Ankin (JD ’93) (pictured above right), manages his Chicago law firm of more than 50 people, concentrating in worker’s compensation and personal injury law. He was selected as a 2015 Super Lawyer. A third-generation attorney, his grandfather graduated from John Marshall in 1940. He also serves on The John Marshall Law School Alumni Association Board of Directors.

THE JOHN MARSHALL LAW SCHOOL ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DEAN
Gifts to The John Marshall Law School

There are many ways to make a gift to The John Marshall Law School.

Gifts of Cash
Simple and uncomplicated, these gifts can be put to work immediately and allow The John Marshall Law School maximum flexibility.

Gifts of Securities and Real Estate
Such gifts, especially if appreciated in value, are enormously advantageous to the law school. They may provide greater tax benefits than gifts of cash.

Life Income Arrangements
A charitable trust or gift annuity is a meaningful gift to The John Marshall Law School and provides the donor with immediate tax deductions and an income for life.

Bequests
Gifts will enable donors to make significant contributions that may not have been possible during their lifetimes.

Life Insurance
Creating a new policy or transferring an existing one enables a donor to convert a modest annual outlay into a substantial gift to the law school.

Annual Fund
We rely on the Annual Fund to close the gap between the actual cost of educating our students and the income from tuition, which does not cover all our costs. We must maintain the immediate benefits provided by the Annual Fund. The goals and objectives of the law school will be achieved only if the Annual Fund continues to grow. Every year you have a special opportunity to make a difference with your annual gift to The John Marshall Law School.

To Make a Gift
You may give online with a credit card at www.jmls.edu/give or contact Lauren Prihoda, Director of Individual Giving, at 312.386.2871 or lprihoda@jmls.edu.
A Message from Associate Dean Ralph Ruebner

For the past 33 years, I have witnessed amazing transformations at The John Marshall Law School and in legal education as a whole.

It has truly been a privilege to witness, and participate in, these changes as we continue our mission to provide access and opportunity to a wide range of students, preparing them with the knowledge, skills, and experience they need to meet the challenges of a dynamically changing legal market. Our reputation as Chicago’s practice-ready law school is well deserved.

I go beyond my role as a teacher and administrator at John Marshall. I have contributed an annual gift each year, and in 1998 my wife Evie and I founded a scholarship to assist immigrants and the children of immigrants who want to attend law school. I hope that we will inspire you to do the same.

We all have a role to play in giving back. Your support is essential to our mission to be a transformative force in the lives of our students and our community. Your support allows us to remain responsive to the needs of our students to meet the challenges here at John Marshall and in the practice of law. Your gifts will provide scholarships to diverse and deserving students.

I am pleased to say that the one thing that has not changed in all my years of service at the law school is the excitement that our students bring to the study of law. Today’s students are just as engaged as they were 33 years ago. I ask that you honor their commitment to better themselves, the profession, the community, and the world by making a generous gift today.

Thank You!
Are we missing your name?

This Annual Report of the Dean includes those alumni and friends who have given gifts to The John Marshall Law School during the fiscal year September 1, 2013 through August 31, 2014. If you made a donation to the law school and your name does not appear in this report, or if your name is included at a giving level that does not seem correct, the following may explain why:

- Your gift was made outside the fiscal year, either prior to September 1, 2013, or after August 31, 2014.
- Your gift was actually in a higher amount than you recall making. Please review the next giving level to see if your name appears there.
- Your name was inadvertently left off due to a clerical error. If this is the case, we apologize for the omission. Please call Maridonna Schaal, Development Services Director, at 312.360.2663 so that we may review your gift information with you.

If you did not make a gift during the 2013–2014 fiscal year, and would like to see your name in next year’s report, please contact Lauren Prihoda, Director of Individual Giving:

Telephone: 312.386.2871  Email: lprihoda@jmls.edu  Online: www.jmls.edu/give

Non-Discrimination Policy
The John Marshall Law School, finding any invidious discrimination inconsistent with the mission of free academic inquiry, does not discriminate in admission, services, or employment on the basis of sex, sexual orientation, race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, age, or disability.
