

THE JOHN MARSHALL LAW SCHOOL

THE JOHN MARSHALL LAW SCHOOL HONOR ROLL OF DONORS

The alumni and friends listed in this report have helped make this past fiscal year particularly successful for The John Marshall Law School. With the outpouring of financial support, we were able to establish several new student scholarships, fund special programs, and sustain operating support. The law school is indebted to our donors for their belief in this institution.

Gifts shown in this report were received between September 1, 2015 and August 31, 2016.

Anna Gonis O'Connor ('06)

GOLD Donor

Despite graduating in the last ten years, Anna Gonis O'Connor ('06) has consistently given a gift each year to The Heart of John Marshall Scholarship in Honor of Miss Criss. While not all recent alumni have the means to be major donors or endow scholarships, donations of any size make a big impact.

Are we missing your name?

This Annual Report of the Dean includes those alumni and friends who have given gifts to The John Marshall Law School during the fiscal year September 1, 2015 through August 31, 2016. If you made a donation to the law school and your name does not appear in this report, or if your name is included at a giving level that does not seem correct, the following may explain why:

- Your gift was made outside the fiscal year, either prior to September 1, 2015, or after August 31, 2016.
- Your gift was actually in a higher amount than you recall making. Please review the next giving level to see if your name appears there.
- Your name was inadvertently left off due to a clerical error. If this is the case, we apologize for the omission. Please call Maridonna Schaal, Development Services Director, at 312.360.2663 so that we may review your gift information with you.

If you did not make a gift during the 2015–2016 fiscal year, and would like to see your name in next year's report, please contact Lauren Prihoda Weiner, Director of Individual Giving:

Telephone: 312.386.2871

David Milberg ('79)

Salary Donor

Many adjunct professors teach at John Marshall simply to give back. No one knows this better than David Milberg ('79), who donates his adjunct pay to the law school. For some adjuncts, lowering their taxable income has added tax benefits.

Gifts to The John Marshall Law School

There are many ways to make a gift to The John Marshall Law School.

Gifts of Cash

Simple and uncomplicated, these gifts can be put to work immediately and allow The John Marshall Law School maximum flexibility.

Gifts of Securities and Real Estate

Such gifts, especially if appreciated in value, are enormously advantageous to the law school. They may provide greater tax benefits than gifts of cash.

Life Income Arrangements

A charitable trust or gift annuity is a meaningful gift to The John Marshall Law School and provides the donor with immediate tax deductions and an income for life.

Bequests

Bequests will enable donors to make significant contributions that may not have been possible during their lifetimes.

Life Insurance

Creating a new policy or transferring an existing one enables a donor to convert a modest annual outlay into a substantial gift to the law school.

Annual Fund

We rely on the Annual Fund to close the gap between the actual cost of educating our students and the income from tuition, which does not cover all our costs. We must maintain the immediate benefits provided by the Annual Fund. The goals and objectives of the law school will be achieved only if the Annual Fund continues to grow. Every year you have a special opportunity to make a difference with your annual gift to The John Marshall Law School.

Joseph Miroballi ('79)

Trial Team Donor

A trial attorney, Joseph Miroballi ('79) understands the importance of courtroom experience and the value of John Marshall's advocacy program. He used his gift to sponsor one of John Marshall's trial advocacy competition teams, ensuring tomorrow's practitioners experience the courtroom before they graduate.

Message from the Executive Director of Alumni Relations & Development

John D. Bergholz

The fiscal year that ended on August 31, 2016, saw a 27% increase in gifts from individuals. Of course, we had a very significant gift from Antonio Romanucci ('85), but we also saw other individuals renew donations at higher levels.

Our new reunion program also added to some of the success we saw in increased individual contributions. The Classes of 1966, 1976, 1991, 2006, and 2010 held reunions and most had a class gift component. Reunion attendance was much higher than in years past as alumni reached out to other alumni to encourage participation. G. Grant Dixon III ('91) was especially helpful as he worked on his class reunion with Jeanine Cunningham ('91, '99), Michael Walsh ('91), and Michele Hendrickson ('91). In addition, Grant was kind enough to underwrite his class reunion and opened the festivities to two other classes as they enjoyed the State Street space. Other class reunion chairs were Jim Stortzum ('76) and Hon. Thomas Nowinski ('76, '83).

The Trial Advocacy Competitions have received support for this new academic year thanks to the support of alumni Joseph Miroballi ('79), Richard Colombik ('80), and Mark Pedowitz ('78). In addition, internships for students interested in pursuing careers in public interest law continue to be funded thanks to the generosity of the Alvin H. Baum Family Fund and Joel Friedman ('75).

The retirement of Professor Bill Caruso has generated support for a scholarship in his honor for the Fair Housing Clinic. The effort currently underway is being led by Stephen Dane and others.

Finally, outgoing Dean John Corkery has also consented to have money raised in his name for a "John E. Corkery Scholarship Fund." We think this is a fitting and proper way to acknowledge and thank Dean Corkery for his many years of service on the faculty and as dean.

We thank you and everyone else who has supported the school and hope that you will do so again this fiscal year, which ends on August 31, 2017.

Thank You!
